CASUALTIES OF XMAS

Numerous Tragedies Occurred In Many States.

MANY KILLINGS IN TENNESSEE

Whisky Was in Most Instances Responsible for the Tragedies—A Quarrel at Dinner Table in Two Instances Resulted in Two Killings.

Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 27.—Christmas week in the eastern section of Tennessee has been an unusually bloody one. Tragedies reported thus far are:

At Newport, Tenn., Robt. Knowles, special policeman, tried to arrest William Allen for drunkenness. A scuffle ensued. Allen fell on top and Knowles pulled a revolver, shooting Allen through and through. Allen died in two hours.

Near Del Rio, this state, Ike Murphy and Luke Norton, brothers-in-law, mortally shot each other to pieces, using revolvers and shotguns. Norton, it is said, while drunk, went to Murphy's home and created a disturbance. The shooting followed.

Near Strahl, Tenn., Alex Wright, who had returned from Missouri to get his wife, who has been living with her parents near that place, called her from church and emptied the contents of his pistol into her body. She is still alive, but cannot live. Jealousy was the cause. Wright is still at large and says he will not be taken alive. He told friends that he has five others to kill and then he will be ready to die

At Isabella, Polk county, John Hall, it is charged, shot and killed his father-in-law, William Crowder. The latter's dead body was found in a public road.

Luther Wallace, aged twenty, shot and killed Lee Eldridge, a prominent man of Holston valley, it is said, using a shotgun. Wallace, while intoxicated, broke into the postoffice at Morris, Tenn. A warrant was placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff White, who deputized Eldridge to assist in making the arrest. Wallace opposed the two men, and after killing Eldridge, made his escape, going to Virginia.

Death at Christmas Dinner.

Hyde Park, Mass., Dec. 27.—Dr. Walter R. Amesbury, of Milford, shot and instantly killed his wife, Anna, a teacher of music in Roanoke college, Danville, Va., as the family were about to sit down to their Christmas dinner at the home of Mrs. Jennie Rees, Mrs. Amesbury's mother, on Wednesday.

Dr. Amesbury was placed under arrest immediately after the shooting.

Mrs. Amesbury had come from Virginia to pass the holidays with her son, Walter R. Amesbury, Jr., and Mrs. Amesbury, who live with their grandmother, Mrs. Rees. Dr. Amesbury came from Milford, where he had practiced for some time, to enjoy Christmas festivities with the family. According to the police, Dr. Amesbury fired two shots, both of which took effect in Mrs. Amesbury's right side. Her death was almost instantaneous.

After his arrest Dr. Amesbury declared that the shooting was accidental. He would not make any further statement.

Mrs. Amesbury was forty years of age and a native of Kentucky.

Two Negroes Killed at Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., Dec. 27.—This has been a noisy but fairly orderly Christmas. There have been but two killings, one a negro by a white man, and the other of a negro by a negro. W. J. Nixon was the white slayer of Joe Bryan, the negro having made insulting remarks about white women, which augmented the trouble between the two. The day was generally observed as a holiday. Views vary as to whether there was more than the ordinary Christmas amount of drunkenness. The saloons kept open.

Shot Through the Arm.

Hartford, Ga., Dec. 27—While shooting at a target with a parlor rifle, Ira Williams, the twelve-year-old son of W. C. Williams, a prominent Oxford merchant, accidentally shot little Claud Dial, the 10-year-old son of R. D. Dial, a planter, residing about four miles from this place. The bullet went through the boy's left arm, grazing the bone and inflicting a painful flesh wound. It is thought that the wound will not prove serious.

Says Shooting Was Accidental.

Baton Rouge, La., Dec. 27.—One burned to death, three shot and one fatally injured in a railroad accident was the record of Baton Rouge for Christmas day. The shooting, which took place Wednesday morning, resulted in the wounding of Gilbert Lockwood, Michael Pollard and Fred Kauffman. All three were shot by Officer DDan Flynn, who says the shooting was accidental. None of the men are seriously injured. Charles Eno, of Carbondale, Ill., a railroad man, was fatally injured. He was crushed between two cars of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad. Verney Dorsey, a young negro girl, was burned to death, her dress accidentally catching fire.

Pottsville, Pa., Dec. 27.—Stanilus Coteash, a boarding house boss, was shot and killed here Christmas day by Frank Cashmore, following a trivial quarrel at the dinner table. Cashmore, who was a boarder, complained because Coteash had not provided a turkey for the Christmas dinner. Coteash, according to witnesses, arose from the table in a rage, rushed to the side of the room and seized a shotgun, with which he shot at Cashmore. The charge of shot went wide, and Cashmore fled upstairs, where he got his own gun. As Coteash was mounting the stairs Cashmore shot him, the charge striking Coteash in the side, tearing an immense hole and causing death in a short time. Cashmore surrendered.

Falls and Breaks His Neck.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 27.—Jackson Stilley, a well known resident of West Elizabeth, near here, while stealthily trying to escape the eyes of the younger members of the family and hide Christmas presents, fell down a stairway late Tuesday night and broke his neck.

Tragedy at Christmas Frolic.

Sergent, Ky., Dec. 27.—As a result of a Christmas carousal in the Pound Cap section above here, in which both parties were intoxicated, Morgan Hughes, aged 24 years, shot and fatally wounded Washington Polley, aged 30.

150 Bodies Recovered.

Jacobs Creek, Pa., Dec. 27.—The work of removing bodies from the Darr mine was resumed Thursday. At 9 o'clock thirty-two bodies were brought to the surface, making the total number recovered 150. The searching party has reached entry No. 29, where numerous bodies were found. The pits were blown to pieces and the timber and irons were scattered about the entry in confusion. The twisted forms of iron led members of the party to believe that the explosion must have taken place in this particular entry.

Was Big Christmas Rush.

New York, Dec. 27.—It is estimated that during the Christmas rush there have been 3,840,000 parcels sent out of the city by mail and express. Exact figures are unobtainable, but the figures based on estimates made at the postoffice and the express offices are thought to be approximately correct. The value of the packages sent by express, where values were given, is said to be about three quarters of a million dollars.

Minister on Trial.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 27.—The Rev. Dr. William H. Shaffer, presiding elder of the west district in the Philadelphia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, was placed on trial before the receipt and criminal court here on charges of conduct unbecoming a minister. The court is composed of nine ministers, the Rev. S. H. Hoover, presiding elder of the north district, acting as judge.

CHASE AFTER ROBBERS

Running Fight With Revolvers For Many Miles.

AUTOMOBILES WERE USED

Thrilling Affair Occurs Near Los Angeles, Cal., In Which Bullets Flew Promiscuously—Robbers Leaped Out of Their Machine and Escaped.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 27.—The looting of a small department store in Whittier, a suburb of this city, the theft of an automobile in which the plunder was loaded, the discovery of the robbers, a swift pursuit by the police in a second machine and a running fight with revolvers for miles over country roads and the final escape of two robbers unarmed in the darkness were the features of a thrilling affair which occurred Wednesday night.

The two thieves whom the police believe to be boys, entered the store of Kellogg & Co., on Philadelphia street, and took a quantity of shoes, hats and suit cases. These they loaded into an automobile which had been stolen some hours before from Dr. Ray Robinson, of this city. When the robberies were reported to the police, the officers hired an automobile, and, accompanied by Dr. Robinson, started toward Whittier, surmising that they might meet the men.

Several miles out they discovered the headlight of an automobile. The robbers also saw the machine of the officers, and turning about, fled toward Whittier.

The police threw on all speed, and succeeded in getting within two hundred yards of the fleeing robbers. Then the race began which continued for many miles. The officers called to the men in the machine in front to halt. There was no answer. A shot was fired over their heads and the robbers crouched in their machine without diminishing their speed.

The occupants of the police machine then opened a fusillade of shots and for a mile continuel to pour a running fire into the automobile ahead.

Suddenly, the two men, without slackening speed, leaped from their machine and fled in opposite directions from the road. Their machine hit a telegraph pole and was partially wrecked.

The officers were unable to find a trace of the robbers.

PANIC AMONG NIGHT RIDERS.

Iron Hand of the Law Is Closing In Upon Them.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 27.—A Hopkinsville, Ky., dispatch says that a special term of the Christian county circuit court has been ordered for the purpose of rigidly investigating the recent raid of night riders on Hopkinsville, when about $200,000 worth of property was destroyed and a railroad man shot, and the local authorities, Governor Willson and the state administration have made it plain that neither effort nor cost will be spared to track down and put in the penitentiary every one of the masked riders.

The activity of the state and local authorities has caused a panic among the night riders and their friends.

In certain localities there has been an exodus of persons under suspicion

Animal Trainer Drops Dead.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 27.—William Bell, an animal trainer known to circus men throughout the country, dropped dead here Wednesday night of heart disease. Bell was known as "Texas," and was 55 years of age. He was one of the few men who could control "Rajah," the famous man-killing elephant.

Elaborate Experiments.

Paris, Dec. 27.—Following elaborate experiments to prevent the recurrence of accidents to submarine vessels, the minister of the navy has issued orders that all submariners be fitted out with detachable telephone buoys which, in case of accident, will permit of communication with the surface.

DIAGNOSED OWN CASE.

Expert Physician on Lockjaw Stricken with that Disease.

Chicago, Dec. 27—Dr. Joseph Peasden, a scientist occupying one of the foremost positions with a large packing firm Wednesday night indicated by signs to physicians at his side in the Chicago Baptist hospital that an attack of lockjaw from which he is suffering would prove fatal.

The physicians, hopeful previously as to the outcome, were silenced by the patient's mutely expressed verdict on his own case, for he is a leading expret on the effects of the disease which had seized him, and there could be no higher authority than his opinion.

This may prove whether the dying expert correctly diagnosed his own case. If Dr. Peasden dies, his expert opinion is justified. If he lives, he will no longer be regarded as infallible in the disease of which he has made a special study and won a reputation.

SON OF POLICE CHIEF SHOT.

Three Negroes Under Arrest at Richland Charged with Crime.

Richland, Ga., Dec. 27.—Blarney Dorman, a son of Chief of Police J. W. Dorman, was shot and killed on Tuesday night.

The cause is not fully known. He was fired at nine times by three separate negroes, the last two shots hitting him in the back of the head, and were fatal.

The three negroes, who are arrested and in Stewart county jail, are George Green, Bob Simmons and Lee Robinson.

Blarney Dorman had just returned home from Lloyd, Fla., where he has been engaged in the saw mill business for some time, to spend the Christmas here with his parents. He was twenty years of age.

Teddy Bear Craze Dying Out.

New York, Dec. 27.—The Teddy bear craze is dying out, according to the toy dealers in New York. When the stores closed late Wednesday night most of the toy departments were pretty well cleared out, except for Teddy Bears. During the holiday rush, just over, thousands of dogs, elephants, monkeys and rabbits made of furry cloth and stuffed as are the Teddy Bears, were sold, but very few of the great numbers of bears that went into the toy shops early in the season have left their shelves. Last season dealers could not get enough of them; this year they are are a drug on the market.

Fatal Knife Duel.

Missoula, Mont., Dec. 27.—Two men were killed Tuesday night at a railway construction camp near Northrop. George Morris, an Austrian killed one of his countrymen in a knife duel, the cause of the trouble being unknown. Morris then started to Northrop and met Contractor Walter A. Arnold, whom he attacked with a knife, and Arnold drew a revolver and shot him dead. Arnold gave himself up, claiming that he acted in self defense.

Charred Body Is Found.

Macon, Ga., Dec. 27—Shortly after 9 o'clock Wednesday morning the remains of Mrs. Ola Watts, a young white woman, were found in a charred condition near the family home on Waters street, in East Macon, and circumstances surrounding the case so implicated the husband, John Watts, that he was arrested. The woman was burned all over the body and was dead when discovered.

Prima Donna Recovers from Illness.

New York, Dec. 27—Mary Garden, the prima donna who has been seriously ill with grip, has so far recovered that she will go to Atlantic City, for a few days. "Louise," the new opera, the production of which has been postponed twice because of Miss Garden's illness, will be sung at the Manhattan opera house January 3.

Two Burned to Death.

Bradford, Penn., Dec. 27.—Henry Meiser and Anita Obert were burned to death and two other men were seriously injured in a fire which destroyed the home of Andrew Ballow.

LONG LIST OF CRIMES

New York's Christmas One of Passion and Tragedy.

DOZEN MURDERS IN A DAY

Many Other Tragic Deaths Were Reported—Woman Burned to Death While Kneeling Before a Shrine, Another Dropped Dead.

New York, Dec. 27.—Although scores of choirs sang "Peace on Earth; Good Will to Men," and the spirit of Christmas shone in a broader and greater charity than ever before, New York's Christmas bore the marks of passion and tragedy. A dozen murders and as many more tragic deaths marked the day.

Mariano Gaeto was called to the door of his home and there shot by an unknown man who escaped. The police have no clew.

John Sweeney refused to give cash to a vagrant, who, angered at the refusal, struck him over the head with a black jack. Sweeney died in a hospital and his assailant was held without bail for trial.

Joseph Kundenson sustained a fractured skull in a fight following his refusal to allow Anthony Rominsky and Joseph Hanay to participate in his family celebration. It is is said that Kundenson was struck with a large brass crucifix.

James Munday was shot and fatally wounded by James Jacarusso, because the former's saloon, newly opened, was doing more business than the one across the street, owned by Jacarusso's brother.

Jacob Jetse and Peter Shaw, watchmen in an apartment building, were badly beaten with a club in the hands of an unknown man, who became angered because neither would take him up stairs in an elevator to visit a servant in the house. Jetse will die.

William Kennedy was dangerously wounded by being shot during an altercation in a saloon. John Palermo is under arrest charged with the shooting.

An unknown woman was found dead in Fifty-first street apparently from the effects of "knock-out drops."

Margaret Byrnes was burned to death while kneeling before a shrine in her home, one of the candles from the shrine falling and igniting the woman's clothing.

His arms filled with Christmas gifts for his children, Herman K. Tenge was knocked down and fatally injured by a trolley car.

Anna Fitzsimmons dropped dead in the midst of a Christmas celebration in exactly the same manner as her only sister died on the same day 25 years ago.

William O'Brien died from injuries received by being run down by an automobile.

Albert E. Muller was killed by falling from the window of his room on the fifth floor of an apartment house.

Elias P. Mance dropped dead while attending a Christmas service at a church in Tottenville.

Two unknown men were killed by elevated trains.

Cupid Busy in New York.

New York, Dec. 27.—Cupid is having an inning in New York just now. There are commonly about 250 marriages a day in the city, but for the last week this number has been increased three-fold, and the next week promises the biggest matrimonial rush the city has ever seen. One minister announces that he married twenty-six couples last week, and has engagements to unite twice that number in the days between now and Jan. 1.

Award of Noble Prize.

Turin, Dec. 27.—Albert S. Michelson, the American consul here was congratulated by the entire consular body and many distinguished citizens upon the awarding of the Nobel prize for physics to his father, Professor Albert A. Michelson, of the University of Chicago. The consul was much pleased at the kindly spirit shown and telegraphed an account of the manifestation to his father.

HE LIKES PAPER MONEY.

Good Story Related at the Expense of Well-Known Mill Operator.

R. D. Medlin, more familiarly known by all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance as "Uncle Bob," is the victim of a story which his most intimate friends actually declare is true, but which will teach him to carry paper instead of gold currency in future.

It is said that on Christmas day Uncle Bob, who is operating extensively in the lumber business in the vicinity of Morriston and Williston, had occasion to make a visit to one of his camps on important business. He took the train all right, and had in his pocket several gold pieces, together with some silver.

Upon arriving at Archer it is reported that Uncle Bob was accosted at the train by a former employe, a colored man, of whom he had always thought a great deal, as the man had performed faithful service. The negro was naturally glad to see him, and, as all other Africans and the majority of Caucasions, expected his "Christmas." Uncle Bob found it necessary to change cars at this point, and the colored man politely offered to take his grip, which he was permitted to do.

To make a long story short, when the grip was properly transferred Uncle Bob reached down into his pocket, and, with his generous heart, handed out to the colored man what he supposed to be a quarter, under the deceiving, flickering light of a passenger coach.

But it was later discovered to be a five-dollar gold piece—and that's the reason Uncle Bob has decided that paper is "safe money."

BEGGAR PRINCE COMPANY

Will Open Three Nights' Engagement Tuesday Evening, December 31.

The Beggar Prince Comic Opera Company with its wealth of pretty girls, gorgeous costumes, beautiful scenery, funny comedians and talented singers, will appear here the night of Tuesday evening, Dec. 31st, in the brightest, jolliest, wholesomest universally popular success of the century, "Said Pasha." The cast is by long odds the best this well-known organization have ever gotten together and the comedy, music, staging and originality displayed in their present offering would do credit to a Broadway production.

When the company was organized for the present tour in New York City the management placed an advertisement in a leading theatrical paper for twenty handsome chorus girls to which they received exactly 891 applicants; from these were picked the prettiest in face and figure, so it is really no wonder that this beauty aggregation has been attracting no little attention from both press and public. This will doubtless be the musical event of the season.

Seats will be on sale early at Miller's.

EXPRESS OFFICE ACTIVE.

Agent King and His Force Gave Excelent Service During Holidays.

Compliments are heard on every hand of the excellent service given by Agent King of the Southern Express Company and his assistants during the holidays.

As a matter of course, the holiday rush was a strenuous one, as hundreds of packages were received on every train; but the situation was handled admirably, everyone was in a good humor, and altogether the service was one which will always be appreciated, as even the most impatient hardly had the time to register a "kick" before he was served.

The people of Gainesville appreciate the excellent service now being given them by Agent King and his acmodating force.

A CHARITY BALL.

Dance Will be Given Here Monday for Benefit Hospital Association.

The young society people of the city are anticipating with a great deal of interest and pleasure the charity ball, which will be given at the Elks' Home on Monday evening for the benefit of the Gainesville and Alachua County Hospital Association.

It is understood that elaborate preparations are being made, and that this will be one of the swellest society functions of the kind ever held in the city.

Tickets for this ball are on sale at Miller's and Areva's.

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of

Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

THIS MAN STOLE CLOTHES.

Mathew Scofield Took Trousers and Coat and Vest, and Was Arrested.

Walter Hicks, a well-known colored man, was arrested by Marshal Arnow upon a charge of larceny, but owing to the admission of Mathew Scofield, another negro, that he was the guilty man, and owing to the fact that the officers discovered the articles where Hicks told them he had hidden them, he was released, and Scofield was afterward arrested and held.

Joseph Manasse, a well-known merchant, stated to the officers several days ago that he had lost from his store four pair of trousers and a fine vest, which led to the arrest of Hicks. Hicks had a pair of the trousers on, it is said, at the time of his arrest, but he explained that he had purchased them from Scofield. Scofield was subsequently arrested, admitted that he had taken them, and led Marshal Arnow to the yard of a colored woman near the Seaboard Air Line depot, where the remainder of the goods were found.

Scofield was placed in jail, upon a charge of petty larceny, while Hicks, who proved to the satisfaction of the officers that he was innocent, was given his freedom.

A Delightful Party.

In honor of her guest, Miss Nellie Saunders, of Glasgow, Ky., Mrs. W. P. Coffey tendered a party to the lady teachers of the faculty of the Gainesville Graded and High School on Thursday evening.

The entertainment was rather a novel one, being a "touring" party, in which the guests were required to guess the name of a country or city by arrangement of certain articles, which were very cleverly grouped.

The first prize was won by Miss Pena Shannon, which was a handsome china pickel dish, while the consolation was awarded to Miss Annie DaCosta.

Delicious refreshments of chicken salad, cakes, etc., were served, and altogether the evening was passed in a most enjoyable manner. The guests departed at a late hour, with the deepest feeling of appreciation to the clever hostess for the pleasures of the evening.

Babies' Branch.

The annual entertainment for the Little Helpers, the babies' branch of the Junior Auxiliary of Holy Trinity church, will be held at the rectory this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

There will be a Christmas tree and simple refreshments for the little folks. Every little child in the congregation too young for the Junior Auxiliary is expected to belong to the Little Helpers, and it is desired that all parents whose children have not yet received the little red boxes will send them to this entertainment, with a contribution in an envelope, to be enrolled and to receive the box for the coming year.

The idea of the society is to teach the children to deposit in their mite boxes a penny each week with a prayer for the missionaries.

Early to Bed

And early to rise, makes one healthy, happy and wise—especially if you atke Herbine before retiring. A positive cure for constipation, dyspepsia and all liver complaints. # FARMERS' INSTITUTE TO BE HELD HERE

Centrally Located, the Institute Will be Well Attended.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS TO COME

Among Whom Will be the Honorable Secretary of Agriculture, and Congressman Clark—Meeting Destined to Prove of Great Benefit.

Two months ago arrangements were being made for holding a largely attended farmers' State meeting at Gainesville. During the months of November, December and January institutes progressed in various counties of the State as they were called for by the farmers of the various sections. As a culmination of these institutes it was a happy idea to have a largely attended central institute, which will be held in this city for three days, February 5, 6 and 7.

At the first suggestion of holding a central institute the matter was broached to Mayor Thomas and other representative citizens of Gainesville, who, with their accustomed vigor, took the matter up at once and united heartily to make this meeting a success.

Other speakers of National reputation are being secured to complete the program. The citizens of Gainesville are doing everything possible to make our visitors comfortable during their stay here and making them wish for an opportunity to return.

Gainesville was chosen because of its central location, enabling people from all parts of the State to reach the meeting with the least possible annoyance. The wide-awake citizens of Gainesville have always made their visitors feel under lasting obligations to them for their hearty hospitality.

The fact that the University of Florida and the Experiment Station of Florida are located at this place makes it of special interest and attraction to all citizens of the State, especially those who are engaged in agricultural pursuits.

Frank Clark Gets Busy.

Through the energy and urgent solicitation of Hon. Frank Clark, member of Congress, who is always awake to the betterment and interest of the people of Florida, those in attendance at the institution will have the pleasure of hearing an address by Hon. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, as Mr. Wilson has accepted the Congressman's invitation. His visit upon this occasion will no doubt prove of a great deal of value to the farmers of the State from a standpoint of practical agriculture.

Following is a copy of the letter written by Congressman Clark to the Secretary, under date of December 23:

"Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.:

"My Dear Mr. Secretary—You will remember that in company with Congressman Sparkman I called to see you a few days since to tender you an invitation from Prof. P. H. Rolfs, director of the Experiment Station of the University of Florida, at Gainesville, Fla., to attend a convention of farmers, to be held at Gainesville, Fla., on the 6th and 7th days of February, A. D. 1908.

"I write now to tender you the formal invitation, and to say that not only Prof. Rolfs but the entire farming population of the State of Florida is very desirous of having you accept the invitation.

"It has become known pretty generally throughout the State that this invitation is to be tendered you, and our newspapers have taken it up, and with perfect unanimity they are insisting upon your acceptance and your attendance upon the convention.

"The farmers of Florida are an exceedingly intelligent class of people, and they are fully advised of the great work which you have done in their behalf since you have been at the head of the Department of Agriculture. Being conversant with your work, and knowing that you are in thorough sympathy with everything that tends to a betterment of the condition of the agricultural classes, they insist on it.

"They are exceedingly anxious to meet you in person and to listen to an address from you. In their name I tender you this invitation, and desire, respectfully, to insist that you go in person to this convention and give our people an opportunity to meet, to hear, and to know, the gentleman whom they hold in such high esteem.

"Trusting an early and a favorable reply, I beg to subscribe myself,

Yours most truly, FRANK CLARK,
"Member of Congress."

DEATH OF PROF. FOSKETT.

One of Gainesville's Old Citizens Passed Away Friday Noon.

One of Gainesville's oldest and most widely known citizens, Prof. A. J. Foskett, died in this city about 1 o'clock Friday afternoon, after an illness of several months.

Deceased was a native of Massachusetts, but has been in this State for the past twenty-seven years. In 1880 he came to Florida, investing in an orange property in the vicinity of Arredondo, it is said. This property failed to materialize any financial benefit, when it was abandoned, and the deceased went to Ocala, where for several years he was engaged in business.

Leaving Ocala Prof. Foskett returned to Gainesville, about eight years ago, since which time he has resided here, a greater part of the time being engaged as a piano tuner and repairer. He has been for the past two or three years in a condition which would not permit his working, being in very ill health.

Deceased was a member of the Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows, and, being a good musician, has accomplished a great deal for these lodges in their work. He was a man of peculiarities, but when understood was well liked.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon, further mention of which will be made later. Robert McClellan will have charge of the arrangements.

MR. BENJAMIN PLEASED.

Former Citizen of Gainesville Compliments City on Its Growth.

Among those who spent Thursday in this city was S. H. Benjamin of Newburg-on-the-Hudson, New York.

Mr. Benjamin is really a pioneer here, as he resided in this city and Micanopy for many years, being engaged in the mercantile business in both places. He was formerly associated with Joseph Manasse in Gainesville, and has many friends here who are always glad to welcome him.

Mr. Benjamin has just returned from Micanopy, where he has been on a visit to his mother, who still resides there. He was en route home, as he stated that it would be necessary for him to return at once, his business requiring his presence.

While here Mr. Benjamin took occasion to pay Gainesville a high compliment in the matter of improvement, stating that he never saw a city of the same size advance so rapidly before. He took a drive about the city, and noted with pride the numerous buildings erected since his departure, as well as the general improvement of the city.

SOOTHES AND HEALS.

Hyomei Gives Quick Relief in Catarrh Troubles.

Be wise in time and use Hyomei at the first warning of catarrhal trouble. Do not let the disease extend through the delicate mucous membrane, gradually going from the nose to the throat, thence into the bronchial tubes and then downward until the lungs are reached and you are in danger of consumption.

Hyomei is so uniformly successful in curing this common and dangerous disease that J. W. McCollum & Co. take all the risk and agree absolutely to refund the money if anyone uses Hyomei and does not get relief.

Begin the use of Hyomei today, and you will soon find that the offensive breath, droppings into the throat, discharge from the nose and all other catarrhal symptoms are cured. The complete outfit costs but $1.00, and J. W. McCollum & Co. stand ready to refund the money if it does not cure catarrh.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

The F. E. & C. U. of A. Society Will Hold Forth at Jaxville.

T. A. Gay, county president of the F. E. & C. U. of A. Society, requests The Sun to announce that a meeting of the society will be held with Jaxville local, three miles southeast of Bell, on Friday, January 3, 1908, when every union of Alachua county is requested to send a delegation.

Passed Examination Successfully.

James Donahue, New Britain, Conn., writes: "I tried several kidney remedies, and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Cure. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Cure cures backache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Young Farmer Shot in Neck.

Bartow, Ga., Dec. 26.—Monday night at the residence of William Oxford, four miles south of Bartow, Donovan Coleman, Frank Denton and Furman Denton engaged in a difficulty with Cordy Davis, all white, in which Cordy Davis was shot twice in the neck and died Tuesday morning. The Dentons and Coleman were arrested and are held here in the guard house under charges of murder. These are young farmers. Davis leaves a wife whom he recently married.

To Be Named Receiver.

Atlanta, Dec. 26.—The Central Bank and Trust Corporation will be appointed receiver for the Neal bank. The bill is now being drawn, making the Central bank the receiver for winding up the affairs of the bank, and will be presented to the court. The Central bank, it is understood, will take immediate charge and proceed to collect the assets of the bank and endeavor to pay the depositors dollar for dollar.

A thief entered the home of Policeman John Dean in Ocala and partook himself of a midnight repast which had been prepared for Mr. Dean. The policeman came in, however, before the burglar had finished his meal, and it is needless to say that he did not wait upon the order of going. In his haste he dropped his hat. Policeman Dean thought that the man would return for his hat, so decided to wait and see. He did not wait very long, for the thief stole back in a little while and was captured.

An immense eagle measuring seven feet from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other, was killed about eight miles from Pensacola late Friday afternoon by M. M. Archer, a planter, who was going to the city on a business trip. The farmer saw the eagle as it killed a young hog, but at the time did not know that it was such a bird. He had no weapon with him, but the immense size of the bird and its attack upon the hog caused him to turn and go to his home, where he secured his shot gun. Returning to the spot he found the eagle devouring the nog and killed ft. The bird was brought to the city and excited much curiosity.

WEDDING AT FAIRBANKS.

Two Popular Young People Joined Together on Christmas Day.

Fairbanks was the scene of a happy occasion on Christmas afternoon, it being the marriage of W. B. Blackwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blackwell, well known and popular people, and Miss A. E. Hardee, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. W. Hilton of Hampon, assisted by Judge G. M. Colman of Gainesville.

This was indeed a beautiful and graceful wedding. As the contracting parties came out to make their solemn pledge, they were joined by James Blackwell and Miss Cora Wittstock, and W. E. Boardman and Miss Lillie M. Blackwell, the attendants. Together the party proceeded to the parlor, where the ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of friends.

The bride looked pretty in her gown of cream silk, while the groom was attired in the conventional black.

Of the attendants, Miss Wittstock was dressed in cream silk, while Miss Blackwell looked well in her dress of white silk. The gentlemen were attired in the customary black.

The parlor decorations were very handsome, being a scheme of evergreens and colored papers. In the hallway was a large holly tree, with its beautiful red berries and other decorations emblematic of the season.

After the happy couple had received the congratulations and best wishes of those present, the party proceeded to the dining-room where the cake was cut, after which dinner was served—and it may truthfully be said this was one of the most elaborate spreads of good things ever served in the county. Those around the festive board made merry for an hour.

The groom is twenty-one years of age, and a young man of excellent character and business qualifications. He has for several years been connected with the Alachua Naval Stores Company, and also the James T. Blackwell mercantile firm. He was born in South Carolina.

The bride is a beautiful young lady of seventeen, and is a native of South Carolina also.

Friends of the happy couple departed after a pleasant afternoon, wishing them a long life of happiness and prosperity.

All the Gold IN GEORGIA Could not Buy-

Roding, Ga. August 27, 1906.

Messrs. E. C. DeWitt & Co.,
Chicago, Ills.

Gentlemen:—
In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. Some physicians told me it was Dyspepsia, some Consumption of the Lungs, others said consumption of the Bowels. One physician said I would not live until Spring, and for four long years I existed on a little boiled milk, soda biscuits, doctors' prescriptions and Dyspepsia remedies that flooded the market. I could not digest anything I ate, and in the Spring 1902 I picked up one of your Almanacs as a poor emaciated Dyspepsia wreck will grasp at anything, and that Almanac happened to be my life saver. I bought a fifty cent bottle of KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE and the benefit I received from that bottle ALL THE GOLD IN GEORGIA COULD NOT BUY. I kept on taking it and in two months I went back to my work, as a machinist, and in three months I was well and hearty. I still use a little occasionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and a good tonic.
May you live long and prosper.
Yours very truly,
C. N. CORNELL.

BARBER—GODWIN.

Sunday, Dec. 22, 1907, the pretty home of Mrs. J. J. Godwin was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding, when J. Edward Barber and Miss Winona Edna Godwin were married, Rev. Andrews officiating.

Promptly at 1 o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Susie Teeter, the young couple appeared, and in the presence of a few relatives and friends were made man and wife.

Mr. Barber is a prosperous young man of Macclenny, and was looking his best in the regulation black suit and white tie, and the bride looked sweetly charming in a dainty dress of white net over silk, with lace and ribbon trimming, white slippers and gloves. Her going-away dress was a lovely blue voile with silk trimming, tan shoes and gloves and hat to match.

Their gifts were handsome and appropriate.

Miss Winona is a daughter of the late J. J. Godwin, and was reared here. She was assistant teacher in the Godwin school this winter, and was one of Rex's most popular young ladies, and will be missed by her circle of friends.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party left on the 2:45 S. A. L. train for Macclenny, their future home, amid the best wishes of their many friends.

Central Bank Takes Charge.

Atlanta, Dec. 27—The Central Bank and Trust corporation Tuesday at 9 o'clock a. m. filed its bond of $500,000 with Clerk Arnold Broyles, of the superior court, through its president, Asa G. Candler, as receiver for the Neal bank. At 10 o'clock the Central bank took formal charge of the affairs of the Neal bank and will proceed immediately to winding them up in an effort to pay the depositors dollar for dollar. It is probable that the business of the Neal bank will be conducted from the Central bank's office in the Candler building.

CRIME WAVE IN NEW YORK.

Criminal Court Calendar Breaks All Previous Records, It Is Said.

New York, Dec. 27.—Although criminal courts are in operation in New York, they cannot keep pace with the crime wave which has swept over the city during the last year.

The criminal calendar Thursday carried 1,271 cases, while a year ago there were on the calendar but 541 cases.

There are 323 prisoners in the Tombs, 236 awaiting trial and 85 awaiting the action of the grand jury. A year ago there were but 191 prisoners, 62 awaiting trial and 129 awaiting the action of the grand jury. Thursday's figures broke all record in New York.

There has been considerable sickness among the criminal judges which may account in some measure for the slowness in trying criminal cases.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH.

Trying to Burn Out Chimney, Her Clothes Were Ignited.

Washington, Ga., Dec. 27.—The news has reached Washington of the fatal burning of Mrs. Lucy Marshall at her home near Aonia, in this county, nine miles east of here. Mrs. Marshall was at home Sunday with her mother, and about noon she decided it would be a good idta to burn out the chimney, which had been clogged with soot.

She secured several newspapers with which to make the blast in the chimney, and while siting near the open fireplace the last newspaper, instead of being drawn up the chimney, for some reason fell back into her lap a roaring ball of flames.

Her clothing became ignited and she was fatally burned before assistance could reach her.

Carcasses Float on the Ocean.

New York, Dec. 27.—Nearly 300 cattle and 1,000 sheep are floating around New York bay and out in the Atlantic ocean. A cattle boat loaded with 365 head of cattle nad 1,600 sheep, on the way from Jersey City to Brooklyn, sprang a leak and sank soon after it reached the dock. In the meantime, 1,000 of the sheep and all but ninety-two of the cattle had either been washed from the sinking float or were drowned in the hold of it, which filled with water.

Children's

Favorite tonic is White's Cream Vermifuge, the cure for worms and all children's diseases. It not only kills the worms, but removes the mucous and slime in which they build their nests. Its action on the child is mild and leaves him in a healthy condition. Joe Daniel, Surmac, Tenn., says that he gave one of his children White's Cream Vermifuge when the doctor thought it had colic, and from the first dose the child passed seventy-three worms. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Bitten by a Tarantula.

Rome, Ga., Dec. 27.—A negro man named John Jones was bitten by a tarantula while handling a bunch of bananas. The negro works for E. Florence, who runs an Italian restaurant here, and was engaged in putting a string around a bunch of bananas. He put his hand through the bunch, when a tarantula bit the man on the hand. Mr. Florence immediately took the negro down to a drug store, and the wound was cauterized.

Danger in Asking Advice.

All Records Broken.

New York, Dec. 27.—Although New York has passed through a period of severe financial depression the foreign business of the port during the year 1907 will break all records. The exact figures for eleven months and an estimate for December made by the customs authorities show that the year's business will reach $1,503,302,902, an increase over last year of $110,127,325.

TESTING METHODS

A test as to the value of newspaper advertising over other methods was made a year ago by the great publishing house of Harper & Bros. Two books were selected, one by a well known popular author and the other by an unknown writer. The latter was selected for the newspaper advertising and the other for the usual channels.

With equal expenditure the work advertised in the newspapers outstripped the other in sales by 200,000 copies.

The result was a complete surprise and established the fact that readers go to the newspapers for information with regard to books as well as with regard to most other matters.—National Printer-Journalist.

The best advertising medium for any merchant is the local paper which goes into the homes of the people, as this paper does.

THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

The proposed farmers' institute, which will convene in this city for three days, beginning February 5, is destined to prove of great practical value to the agricultural interests of the State, and the institute should be well attended by farmers from all sections.

Since it has been learned that Secretary of Agriculture Wilson will be here and address the meeting, those interested should feel it their special duty to come and listen to the valuable suggestions along agricultural lines that this learned gentleman has to offer.

It may not be generally known, but the last Legislature of this State made an annual appropriation of $2,500 a year for the holding of these institutes, same to be held under direction of the experimental station. Several of these institutes have already been held in various sections of Florida, but it is intended to make this, the central institute, the most valuable and useful of them all, and to this end the promoters are working.

Merchants who can read the signs of the times understand that some reaction from the era of high prices is inevitable. Just to what extent retail prices will be readjusted during the coming year no one can foresee. But, while there will be no serious "money famine," the people are coming to realize as they never did before that the matter of spending money should have just as much attention as the matter of earning it. And the general realization of this truth will influence very greatly the buyings and sellings of the year. The coming year will be a year of changing conditions in the business world. It is to be a year of readjustment. The recent financial disturbances will have their consequences in bringing about new conditions and new alignments in the business community. This will be true in every city and town, as well as in Gainesville.

The value of farm crops which go to the support of animals is much greater than that consumed by man. All of the wheat, a quarter of the oats, one-tenth of the corn, all of the barley, the rye, the buckwheat, the rice, the potatoes and tobacco all belong to the crops and the portions of crops destined for human consumption. The sum total of farm value of these on December 1, 1907, as figured by the Department of Agriculture, was $1,079,-[illegible]. The value of animal feedstuffs is just twice that required by man, or $2,190,000,000, including most of the principal crops of the current year.

An Indiana man committed suicide because he could not get an office. If that practice was carried out in Florida the undertakers would be kept busy.

The advertising blunders of 1907 should be "censored out" of your 1908 [illegible].

THE SOUTH AS IT IS TODAY.

The following from a recent issue of The Atlanta Constitution shows what position the South is taking in the nation today. The Constitution says:

"Discussing the marvelous progress of education in the South, as well as the growth of Southern industries, The Washington Post of recent date thus concludes an editorial:

'It is not alone in the increased number of schools in the South that a change is noted. The range and quality of the instruction is greatly improved. Better teachers are employed, modern methods adopted, manual training encouraged, and a beginning made in the establishment of libraries. It is a great day for the South. With prosperity and education in the lead, she is marching on to noble conquests.'

"Such expressions serve to concentrate attention on the fact that the South is today probably the most thoroughly advertised section of the nation. Fifteen, even five years ago, the steady cry was, 'Go West, young man!' But with a better understanding of the limitless resources of the territory between the Potomac and the Rio Grande, and of the endless opportunities offered to youth and ambition, the tide has greatly turned.

"A curious fact in this connection is that the wide publicity given the South's advantages has been less the result of effort originating in section than voluntary testimony on part of visitors who were vividly impressed by tours through the various States. Many of them came to us with prejudgments of an adverse nature, only to become converted into enthusiastic and loyal friends of the South, and believers in its industrial future.

"In view of these facts, it is well that the people of the South should bear in mind the necessity for conservatism in legislation and public sentiment. We loom large in the eye of the nation, it is true. Part of the price we must pay for that valuable prominence is an attitude toward all phases of development so tolerant and equitable as to make this section preeminently inviting to both capital and prospective citizens."

PRAISE FOR CLARK.

Mr. Crosby Thomas of Cleveland, Ohio, who has just returned from Washington, where he has been looking after legislation regarding Florida harbors and waterways, in an interview with a Times-Union reporter in Jacksonville, has the following to say in praise of Congressman Clark:

"I was especially pleased and surprised at the favor which Congressman Clark was able to procure for me. Frank Clark, although a comparatively new member, has commanded the respect of the House and will prove a very useful man for the State. He is aggressive, and yet makes no enemies, and has attained a standing seldom reached by Congressmen until they have had many years of service.

"For the sake of the State it is greatly to be regretted that Florida will probably lose both her older representatives in the House on account of the Senatorial contest, and the people should not fail to return Mr. Clark by a big vote, for that will still further increase his influence in the House.

"He has introduced two very important bills this session, the passing of either of which would make him famous. The bill for the sale of the Philippine Islands will probably receive very little support, although there are likely to be times during the next ten years when the defeat of that bill will be regretted.

"The refund cotton tax bill ought to pass, and it would mean much to the people of the South to have those many millions of dollars returned which they have paid out in illegal taxes."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

Thaw's Christmas in the Tombs.

New York, Dec. 27.—Harry Thaw has made Christmas presents to every one in the Tombs, which has been his home since the night of June, 1906, when he shot Stanford White on the roof garden of Madison Square. To each keeper he gave a box of cigars, and to each matron a half dozen handkerchiefs. To each male prisoner he gave a box of chocolate and two cigars and to each woman prisoner a handkerchief.

Father Killed by Son.

Cordele, Ga., Dec. 27.—Duncan Sheffield, a prominent farmer, was shot and killed by his son at their home, 10 miles southwest of here, on Tuesday night. Particulars are hard to get, but it is said that both father and son had been drinking and had a falling out about a mule, whereupon the son shot the father with a shotgun, killing him almost instantly. The son had not been arrested at last accounts.

New Industry at Columbus.

Columbus, Ga., Dec. 27.—Columbus is to have a brand new industrial enterprise, application for charter for the Standard School Desk Manufacturing company having been filed by Macon O. Berry and associates. The authorized capital stock will be $150,000.

Coming to America.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 27—Professor Paul M. Milukoff, the elder of the constitutional democrats in the duma, left here Thursday for the United States. While in America he will speak on political matters.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

HORSE SENSE.

The Kind Needed, Not by the Animal, but by the Owner.

I wonder if any one can give a reasonable excuse for watering horses as soon as they have finished a meal or just before going out for a drive, says a writer in Suburban Life. In the first place, the oats are washed out of the stomach into the intestinal canals, where they cannot be digested and must be an active irritant, and, in the second, a stomach full of water makes a horse dull and logy. A little at a time and that often is a good rule in watering stock.

Did you see that warning signal which nature threw out the other day as you stopped your horse for a moment? As soon as it halted one forefoot was thrown forward because something was wrong and there was pain.

If you had examined the animal you might have found some heat about the coronet or some sensitiveness along the muscles of the pastern or about the ankle. Your friend says, "Call a veterinary and have him nerved."

A better way is to stop using for a few days, remove the shoes and let the horse stand on peat moss if an earth floor is not to be had. Of course the grain ration must be greatly reduced and bran mashes substituted.

Then see if the heels have been cut so low as to strain the muscles of the leg or the toes left long to insure more stride or the foot is not properly balanced. "No foot, no horse," is an old adage.

Why not take away those cribs and let your horse feed from the floor? It will require more time for it to consume a meal, but that is surely no objection, and the animal's digestion will be improved.

How about that horse which is so ravenous for grain? Did you ever try one of those cribs with cups to prevent bolting of the grain, or have you experimented by scattering the oats along the side of the stall floor so they must be eaten slowly? Any device which necessitates twice the time usually consumed in putting away a ration of grain will materially aid the appearance, service and condition of a horse.

Do you stay with your horse while he is being shod? How, then, do you know that he is being kindly treated? I saw a good smith strike a horse over the head the other day with his rasp, and the marks of that blow will remain for weeks.

Many valuable animals have been permanently injured by such blows given under impulse, the result of vexatious switching of tail or struggling. No sane man will allow the connecting hoof structure between the wall of the foot and the frog to be cut away simply to give a more pleasing appearance.

By this one makes certain contraction of the heels, with all its attendant permanent ills. This tissue is the natural hoof expander and as such must be closely guarded.

One of the most successful stage drivers of the old time told me years ago that a horse would last a third longer and do better service if its harness fitted in every part, and I think he was right. Take a look the next time you drive out and see if the horse is the right distance from the carriage to insure the minimum of force in moving and yet not hit, if the collar fits, the breastplate or holdback is not too high or low or the saddle too far forward. A business man or, better still, a woman will at a glance detect anything wrong.

A Year a Speech.

The late Justice Hawkins of England was once trying a prisoner for robbery with violence, and when the expected verdict of guilty had been delivered he curtly sentenced the man to five years' penal servitude.

The prisoner, a burly old convict, was a man of ungovernable temper, and the severity of the judge's sentence so enraged him that he successfully resisted the warders and indulged in a perfect torrent of virulent abuse directed toward the occupant of the bench.

"I make the sentence six years," interjected his lordship imperturbably. But even that did not check the man's mad desire to let Justice Hawkins know "what he thought of him."

"I make the sentence seven years," said the judge, when the convict stopped for breath after a particularly vile series of insults.

Then suddenly common sense seemed to come to the man. He made as if to continue his abuse, but pulled himself up.

"If I don't dry up I s'pose you'll make it a lifer," he said resignedly and followed the warder down the dock steps without another word.

Public Speaker Interrupted.

Public speakers are frequently interrupted by people coughing. This would not happen if Foley's Honey and Tar were taken, as it cures coughs and colds and prevents pneumonia and consumption. The genuine contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. J. W. McCollum & Co.

MR. AND MRS. DEAN.

The Surprise They Gave a Roomful of Blackguards.

In the early part of the nineteenth century Vauxhall was the resort of many respectable persons, especially of those who came up from the country to see London sights. During one season it was infested by a band of roughs, who made it their occupation to insult and molest the most quiet, decent people, especially any whom they guessed to be country visitors. They became such a nuisance that several men about town, among whom were Lord Alvanley and Keppel Craven, laid a plot to get rid of them.

They hired Mendoza, the famous prize fighter, and dressed him up as a dean, with a shovel hat and apron. Another prize fighter, a short man, was dressed as a middle aged lady and passed as the dean's wife, and one evening they were seated at Vauxhall in a conspicuous position to watch the fireworks. It was not long before the old fashioned, countrified pair attracted the attention of the gang, who assailed them with every kind of coarse raillery and insult, all of which they bore very meekly.

At length one of the persecutors, growing bolder by impunity, stepped up to the dean and squirted an orange into his eye. On this the dean, rising, said in a meek, quiet tone, "Really, gentlemen, I have borne a great deal, but I must put a stop to this." With that his hat went one way and his coat another, and, followed by his "wife," he sprang into the middle of the party, hitting out in all directions. Filled with astonishment and terror, some fled and some tried to show fight, but the handling they got from the prize fighters was too severe for the fracas to last long.

All the time Lord Alvanley and his friends, who were in the boxes, were calling out in delight: "Go it, Mr. Dean! Give it 'em, Mrs. Dean!" An effectual stop was thus put to the annoyance.—London Spectator.

Pearl Banks of Ceylon.

In a report from Colombo the United States consul says that of the world's great fisheries none can compare either in point of antiquity or in the continuity of their prosecution with the pearl fisheries of Ceylon, which he thus describes: "The pearl banks of Ceylon date back to the sixth century before Christ. It is recorded that Vijaya, the first Singhalese king of Ceylon, in the year 550 B. C. presented his father-in-law, the Pandyan king of Madura, 'a gift of pearls,' thus indicating a settled fishery for pearls on the coast of his dominion prior to the historic date."

Trimmings.

The other day at a golf club in Scotland a minister of the kirk was reproved by an elder in his church for using high flown words respecting a bad stroke he had made, and the minister replied:

"Weel, Dauvid, I was nae sae mich swearing as merely embellishing my feelings."

Shaky Logic.

"You certainly told me to embrace my privileges."

"Well, but I didn't tell you to embrace my daughter."

"No. But to embrace your daughter is a privilege."—London Express.

A man must stand erect, not be kept erect by others.—Marcus Aurelius.

NEGROES MADE RESISTANCE.

Deputy Sheriff Had Trouble in Arresting Two Negroes.

Macon, Ga., Dec. 27—Deputy Sheriff Joe Wilson met the resistance of two negroes when he attempted to arrest Webster and Will Smith for implication in a shooting affray near Nelson's mill Wednesday afternoon, but he succeeded in landing his men.

Will Smith is charged with shooting a negro woman, and she was left in a dying condition.

The deputy was called and went immediately after the negroes. He had some difficulty in arresting Webster and Smith. Pistols were used in evidence. The officer was not hurt. The negroes are in jail.

Waylaid and Killed.

Roxie, Miss., Dec. 27.—While returning home near here Tuesday night James Temple and J. C. Campbell were waylaid, and Campbell killed and Temple shot through the arm. Campbell was out on bond, having killed a young man named Grover in May last. Temple was his main witness. Tuesday night's shooting is believed to be an incident in a feud which has come into existence since the killing of young Grover.

Notice to Our Customers.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug Law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Assistant Librarian Dead.

Chicago, Dec. 26.—E. F. L. Gauss, first assistant librarian of the Chicago public library, died Monday evening, aged 56 years. He had been in the library service twenty years, and was one of the most prominent German-Americans in Chicago.

What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."

The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels (as mucous diarrhea), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections, it is often successful in affecting cures.

The "Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of one class of diseases—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities incident to women only. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nervine. For weak worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulæ of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines.

The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into Doctor Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

Victim of Open Grate.

Sergeant, Ky., Dec. 26.—Lillie Rowes, aged 14, daughter of William Rowes, a farmer, was burned to death at her home. The girl's clothes caught fire from an open grate.

TRAGEDIES IN CHICAGO.

Negro Shoots and Kills White Man in a Saloon.

Chicago, Dec. 27.—Henry Bender was shot and instantly killed Wednesday night by Milo Thompson, negro, in a saloon. A quarrel on the platform of a street car preceded the shooting.

Thompson was arrested as he was attempting to escape after a struggle in which Harry Baird, a detective, was struck by a bullet from the negro's revolver. Baird was not injured.

Pietro Lilla was shot through the heart Wednesday by Michael de Francisco. The shooting occurred at de Francisco's home where a Christmas party had been held. De Francisco escaped.

The killing was the result of a quarrel between the two men over a game of cards.

It is a positive cure for Coughs, Influenza, Bronchitis and all Pulmonary diseases. One bottle will convince you—at your druggist's 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Explosion of Nitroglycerin.

Steubenville, Ohio, Dec. 26—A supposedly empty nitroglycerin can, picked up on the Ohio river bank by two railroad construction laborers, seven miles above this city, and used to heat water in, exploded with terrific force the noise being heard for miles. Tom Noppenberger, aged 45, a Virginian was instantly killed, and Mike Frontingham, of this city, was fatally injured.

P. S.—Business is growing very satisfactorily in all other ways.

For "Daughter's" Xmas Gift

Father naturally thinks of a watch, a pin, a brooch, a bracelet or locket as something that daughter will be sure to appreciate, and this is true enough—few girls there are, in or out of their 'teens, that would not be perfectly charmed to receive one of the innumerable examples we are offering in the articles mentioned. Take the locket as an instance: We have them diamond-studded, chased or engraved, designs in relief or simple tracery of quaint patterns—all sizes, and all prices.

L. C. SMITH, Gainesville, Fla.

A barrel of fresh Saratoga chips just in, ready for today's trade. W. S. Dorsey & Co.
